Spring Feast Spotlights Church Growth

by Jim Howell

There was no doubt about it; it was plain to any observer on the scene. On the first High Day, there were FEWER people in attendance than in previous years! Yet God's true Church had GROWN! How can this be explained? This apparent contradiction has a very real answer.

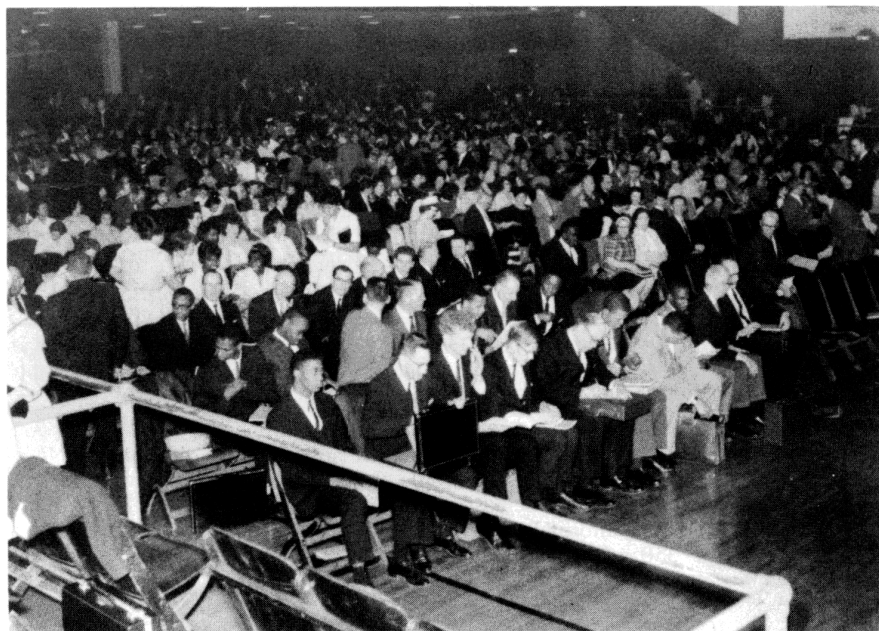

In past years, many of the local churches came to Chicago to observe the entire spring feast. Consequently, there were big problems of lodgings, transportation, and physical facilities. Then it was possible for several churches to meet together; we became accustomed to large crowds.

But now, with the growth exhibited by the respective church areas, such a large combined meeting is PHYSICAL-

LY IMPOSSIBLE! In order to cope with this problem, many of the churches in the Chicago District held their own services during part or all of the Days of Unleavened Bread. As a result, attendance in Chicago was noticeably lower on the first High Day, but nearly back to the "familiar" level by the last

Indianapolis Hears Mr. Roderick C. Meredith

For the last day of Unleavened Bread the Indianapolis Church journeyed to Cincinnati, where, with Lexington, Kentucky; Columbus and Dayton, Ohio Churches, the tri-state meeting was held in the Cincinnati Music Hall.

Mr. Roderick C. Meredith was the principal speaker, having arrived the previous Sabbath after spending the first 3 days in the Detroit area.

The theme of the meetings was; removal of the sin of lethargy which has beset the Philadelphia era. Sermons were given on how to be a part of the Work and to overcome complacent attitudes.

On Saturday night a social was held,

Two Local Elders Ordained

Bearing fruit in spiritual growth and showing desire to serve the brethren, Mr. James Reyer was recently ordained a local Elder during the feast of Unleavened Bread in the Chicago area at Gary, Indiana. Mr. Reyer is the father of 3 children. His wife's name is Alice and they live in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Reyer were baptized in March of 1961 at Chicago, Illinois. He has served as a deacon for several years and has now been given greater responsibility as a local Elder in God's church. Mr. Reyer and his wife have continued to show tremendous growth

Allen Bullock

Mr. Allen Bullock was also ordained as a local Elder, along with Mr. James Reyer, at Gary, Indiana during the days of Unleavened Bread by Mr. Jon Hill, Evangelist, and Mr. Bill McDowell, Pastor.

Mr. Bullock is a graduate of Ambassador College and his parents are members of God's church in Houston, Texas. He was sent out to the Omaha area to work with Mr. Ronald Reedy. When Mr. Reedy married, Mr. Bullock was then sent to work in the South Bend and Grand Rapids area with Mr. Frank McCrady. Mr. Bullock recently married Miss Doris Patterson, an Ambassador student in December of 1965.

EDITORIAL

PAY YOUR DEBTS!

By Allen Manteufel

A problem that keeps cropping up in God's Church is that of the person who is always borrowing money, with no or little intention of repaying it! Since he is a member he considers it a privilege to have other members help him take care of his money problems.

True, we are to be concerned how our fellow members are faring. We are to be ready and willing to extend a helping hand whenever it is needed. But, it must be done in the right way.

"Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away." (Matt. 5:42) What did Jesus Christ mean by this? Some have understood by this that no matter what the circumstances a Christian is obligated to give money to anyone who asks for help. If this be true, then, you would be at the mercy of every derelict, vagrant, freeloader and bum that exists on the earth. This is not what Christ intended!

Brethren, before you loan money to anyone, check to see if the person has been doing his part. Has he been at least half way diligent in finding a decent job? Has he been conducting himself wisely on the job so as not to irritate fellow works and rankle the boss and get fired? Has he been trying to budget the money he does have so he's not wasting it? Or is he "freeloading" at your expense? If he is not doing his part to become financially independent, to stand on his own feet. God says we should NOT give money repeatedly to such a person. It is wasting money you have earned. (See I Thess. 4:11-12 and II Thess. 3:6-13).

God intends each man to stand on his own feet, to provide for himself and his own family. Herein is CHARACTER and INTEGRITY built. The indolent and "freeloader" are not permitted on any church "dole"! Neither should you CARELESSLY loan your money to such a member!

Each of you, as a member in God's true church, should examine yourselves. How do you stand financially? Have you borrowed money from other church members, or parents, or relatives, or even banks or loan companies? People or organizations outside the church in most cases will bring legal action against you forcing you to make repayment. Within the church we are commanded not to go to court against a spiritual brother. (Read carefully I Cor. 6:1-7).

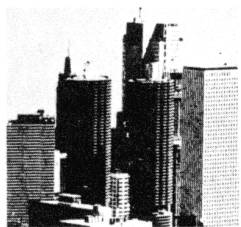

It is up to you to realize your financial obligations and TO REPAY LOANS. (Ps. 37:21). God in his word. grants you the privilege of making repayment in the amounts and at the time you are able to do so. Doing so will mark your personal integrity and spiritual maturity!

Kalamazoo Passover by Victor Johnson

Passover 1966 for the South Bend-Grand Rapids churches was held geographically midway at the spacious County Center Building auditorium, Kalamazoo, Michigan. 350 adults gathered in all solemnity to participate in this memorable, sober occasion.

In contrast, JOY abounded the following evening as families and others swelled attendance to 600 at the Night To Be Much Remembered and the first Day of Unleavened Bread. Stirring sermons by Ministers Frank McCrady and Roland Van Slooten, and a sermonette by Allen Bullock were enhanced by the precise singing of a fast-maturing South Bend Chorale.

Just One of Those Minneapolis Days

by Carol J. Pagel

On the beautiful, buoyant day of March 20, Fred Bauer's farm was the location of a memorable party. About eighty eager brethren turned out for the day's events.

At noon the first few started filtering in. From the start the call for the day was outdoor activities: volleyball, kite flying, and softball. Others found much enjoyment just being out in the fresh, invigorating country air and sunshine. One kite soared more than 1,600 feet. The three-hour softball game was the center of activities. Mixed teams added to the zeal of the game.

As the sun drifted west, the call came that food would soon fill the growing gaps in our stomachs. While the food was settling, Mr. Russell Brown strummed his ukulele and howled along with it. (It couldn't be called singing!)

It was just another one of those days to recapture true values, develop individual personality, gain new acquaintances, and enrich older friendships.

Minneapolis Wedding

by Bonnie J. Marth

Many of the Minneapolis brethren experienced their first Church wedding Saturday evening, March 19. Miss Sandy Ford and Mr. Arnold Goodfellow were married at the Wold Chamberlain Hall in a ceremony performed by Mr. Sherwin McMichael. Sandy was certainly a beautiful bride—she made her lovely full-length gown herself! Esther Helle was the maid of honor and Wayne Lugenbill was best man.

Following the simple but meaningful ceremony, there was a reception in the basement.

South Side Spokesman Dine at "Surf & Serve"

The modern, beautifully located, "Surf and Serve" restaurant at 50th and the shore of Lake Michigan was an appropriate setting for the "Feast time" combined dinner meeting of the South Side Church's three Spokesman Clubs. In addition to a delicious dinner in an uplifting, colorful banquet room, the 172 men and women who attended were privileged to hear educational, thought provoking and lively speeches with pleasure and profit. At the conclusion of the meeting we were blessed to be corrected and encouraged not only by our area Supervisor, Mr. Bill McDowell, but also by our special guest, Mr. David Jon Hill, the second ranking executive in the Spokesman Club organization. Mr. Hill particularly pleased us by stating he had observed our progress in learning how to evaluate the speakers—a fundamental attribute of Godly character.

High Day when additional Churches were present.

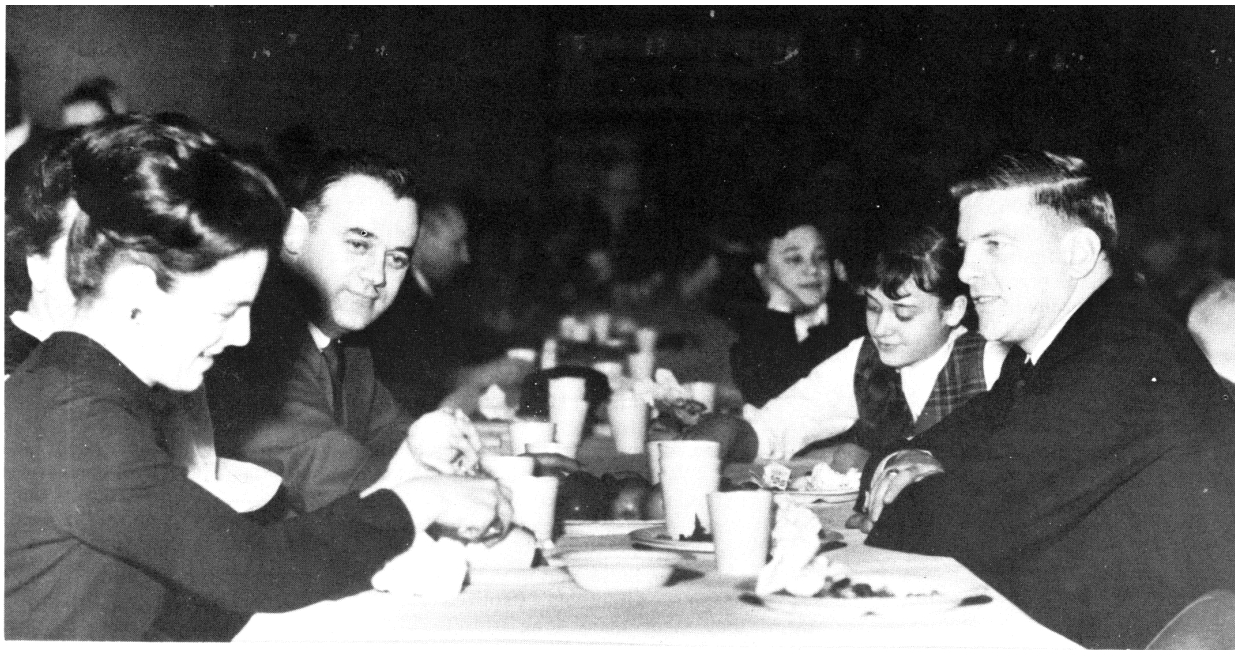

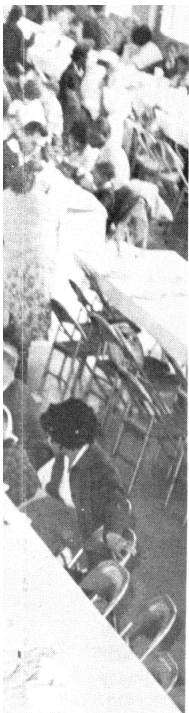

Visiting Evangelist Jon Hill vividly described on the first High Day how growth is a process—it requires time and effort. Growth is a process of overcoming—of change—a change from the evils of your past to the righteous ways of God.

What changes do YOU need to make? Mr. Hill outlined seven of them:

1. Your attitude, 2. Your associations, 3. Your outlook, 4. Your habits, 5. Your appearances, 6. Your personality, 7. Your physical body.

The last change occurs AFTER the accomplishment of the other six—when Jesus Christ returns to this earth!

Mr. McDowell greets one of many brethren.

Babies certainly make me happy.

"No, Mr. Madison, seconds on food are not allowed."

New Deacons Ordained In Nashville

Nashville enjoyed a double treat Sabbath, April 30, 1966. With the strides in growth in the Nashville area there have been many "firsts." Now the first two deacons have been ordained in a joyous, tear-filled ordination service that "non-plused" Mr. Ken Wingham and Mr. William Hinson as they heard their names called to come to the front.

Ken Wingham William Hinson

While visiting here in Nashville for the last time before it becomes the center of another district this summer, Mr. McDowell discussed the ordinations with Mr. Steep and then checked with headquarters. Mr. McDowell was very thankful for the opportunity to take part in the ordination service and deliver the sermon. Many fond memories of southern warmth and hospitality will remain with him.

The congregation was very thankful for and deeply moved by the visit of the McDowell's and the ordination service—the first one ever seen by many including Mr. Hinson.

Mr. Wingham has been a long-time member and dedicated help. He attended the Memphis, Harrisburg and Evansville Churches in his zeal for God's Truth before the Nashville Church began. He sells school safety programs and supplies. With him you'll see his wife and five fine children.

Mr. Hinson met Mr. McCrady about two years ago on a baptizing tour. Ever since then his service and help in the area is well known by all the brethren. He attended the Memphis Church before the Nashville Church started. He is very thankful for God calling his wife and giving them four radiant children. He works at the Ford Glass Plant installing the car windshields.

Both of these men were already fulfilling the office of a deacon. The ordination makes the office recognized and gives them a full awareness of the responsibilities to be filled.

We rejoice with deep love and thankfulness in the ordination and the visit by Mr. McDowell—a Sabbath we will long remember.

Eight Days of Unleavened Bread Held at Minneapolis

by Russell Brown

The Night To Be Much Remembered found 800 of God's people observing the spring festival in Minneapolis. The usual joy and exuberance of this feast night was heightened by the ordination of four men to the office of Deacon! The suddenness of the surprise announcement filled the room with the hushed excitement that such announcements have a habit of doing! However, it was not surprising to hear the following men called forward: Mr. Clemet Hendrickson, Mr. Wayne Luginbill, Mr. Herbert Zacharias, and Mr. Fred Bauer.

Mr. Hendrickson and family, including his wife Jenny and three children—Chyrstina, Steve, and Brenda, live in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Baptized in 1958, they made many long trips to Chicago to observe God's Feast Days until at last they could have services in their own area. During these years, Mr. Hendrickson's home has always been open to God's people and he has diligently served others in many different ways. Though busy in his trade as a carpenter, Mr. Hendrickson has never let a heavy work schedule come between him and his service to others.

Mr. Luginbill, also baptized in 1958, is one of the charter members in the Minneapolis congregation. He, too, has made the long trips to Chicago and Texas for the Feast Days. An accomplished electrical engineer, Mr. Luginbill has an important job with the Sperry-Rand Univac Corporation in the research and development of electronic instruments. He is currently president of one of the local Spokesmen's Clubs and is an enthusiastic leader in all activities. Long a bachelor, he has now found just the right woman and plans to marry Miss Esther Helle on April 30.

Mr. Zacharias' family includes his wife Donna and three children—David, Danny, and Nancy. They are presently living in Stillwater, Minnesota, where he works for the Connally Shoe Company as production control manager. Baptized in 1957, the Zacharias family lived in Chicago until 1963. From his experiences in the Chicago Spokesmen's Clubs, Mr. Zacharias has drawn the leadership necessary to help set the pace and proper example in the Minneapolis Clubs. He is now one of our three presidents.

Mr. Bauer, baptized in 1963, has always shown a fine example of sincere love and concern toward others. The Bauer family, including his wife Ruby and their five children—Ruth, Mark, David, John, and Phillip, live on a farm just south of Minneapolis. Taking an active part in his Spokesmen's Club over the past three years, Mr. Bauer has put forth the effort to produce fine growth in his leadership and speaking ability; and as everyone knows, Mr. Bauer's home is always available to our young people's activities that need the wide-open spaces of a country home.

"By their fruits you shall know them!" It certainly is evident in the lives of these four men that they have qualified to serve as deacons by having already expressed this service and love toward others.

BAKING WITH HONEY

by Rose McDowell

Since honey is a natural, unrefined food it is to be preferred as a sweetener in foods. Honey may be substituted for sugar in most recipes—especially in baking. Baked goods keep better when honey is used as they retain more moisture.

A good rule to replace sugar with honey in baked goods is to reduce the amount of liquid 1/4 cup for each cup of honey used to replace the sugar.

Here is a popular recipe with honey substituted for sugar. This recipe is from the wrapper of Baker's German's Sweet Chocolate.

German's Sweet Chocolate Cake

- 1 bar (4 oz.) Sweet Chocolate
- 1/2 cup boiling water
- 1 cup butter (half butter and half oil may be used)
- 2 cups honey
- 4 egg yolks, unbeaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

- 2 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 cup buttermilk (or sour milk)
- 4 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Melt chocolate in boiling water. Cool. Cream butter and honey. Add egg yolks, one at a time, and beat well after each. Add melted chocolate and vanilla. Mix well.

Sift together flour, salt and soda. Add alternately with buttermilk to chocolate mixture: beat well. Beat until smooth. Fold in whites.

Pour into 3 inch deep 8 or 9 inch layer pans, well oiled. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 30 to 40 minutes. Cool. Frost tops only.

Coconut Pecan Frosting

Combine 3/4 cup milk, 1 cup honey, 3 egg yolks, 1/2 cup butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened, about 12 minutes. Add 1 1/3 cups grated coconut and 1 cup chopped pecans (or walnuts). Beat until thick enough to spread.

In Memory of Clarence Wadley

by Elisha Crim

Mr. Wadley was born in Atlanta, Georgia, February 3, 1887 through the wedlock of Ephriam and Mattie Wadley. The second of three children, he came to Chicago at the age of 19, attended Winter Engraving School. By chance, through a gift of a copper, hand engraved plate to baseball great, "Ty Cobb" he became a legend in the baseball world. For 47 years he made jewelry for both team and individuals. He was well known and liked by both major and minor leagues from Coast to Coast.

He was also well known, liked, and respected by Chicago's finest stores; Marshall Field, Peacock, The Palmer House and others. From Sacks on Fifth Avenue in New York to Neimin Marcus in Texas.

He was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage, December 1, 1965 causing complete paralysis of the right side only days prior to final preparations for his marriage to Mrs. Lillian R. Huddleston, of Flint, Michigan, who with the assistance of devoted friends nursed and cared for him untiringly throughout his illness. Mr. Wadley never fully regained the use of his body or speech, but his mind was alert and active most of the time. Also he showed deep appreciation to those who administered to his care.

He was a loyal and devoted member to his church, well loved and respected by all who knew him. Because of circumstances beyond our control many of his friends, especially in the baseball world, have not been notified of his death. Therefore, they could not show the esteem and respect in which he was held by them.

Mr. Wadley departed from this life March 31, 1966, at 5:30 PM. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Laurinda Davis, Atlanta, Georgia, his fiancée, Mrs. Huddleston, very dear and close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Wheller, of Chicago, Mrs. Bernice Christmas, of Aurora, Illinois, and many, many friends too numerous to mention.

He will be sadly missed by everyone but death comes to all. Our Eternal God is no respecter of persons.

Yes, we regret to lose Mr. Wadley, but we are happy to welcome Mrs. Huddleston to our church family here in Chicago, and ask your prayers for her.

D. W. Samples

Assignments of ministerial assistants have been made in Pasadena! Serving in the Chicago area this summer will be Donald Samples, who is currently finishing his junior year of college in Pasadena. He will work directly under our local pastor Mr. Bill McDowell.

Mr. Samples is no stranger to Chicago. He spent the summer of 1961 at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. During this time he was able to visit several places of interest here. Before he was discharged from the navy, he spent time in the Submarine Service and attended the Polaris Missile School in Norfolk, Virginia.

This fall Mr. Samples will transfer to the campus in Big Sandy for his senior year. He expects to arrive here in Chicago shortly after Pentecost. Be sure to get acquainted and make him feel welcome!

NASHVILLE CHURCH HOLDS NEGRO SOCIAL

by Walter Sledge

On the evening of February 27, 1966 the Negro brethren of the Nashville, Tenn. Church and their honored guests met together in the city Murfreesboro, Tenn., at the Elks Club for the first Negro social. There was dining, dancing, and fun for both young and old.

Our chairman for the evening, Mr. Odean Allen, kept things moving throughout the entire program. As the dancing got under way, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steep took to the floor, setting a brisk pace for everyone else to follow. Soon both young and old were on the floor during such dances as the Virginia Reel, and the Hokey-Pokey. After the appetite of everyone reached its peak we down to a wonderful dinner.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steep, Mr. Dailey Batson, Mr. and Mrs. Hinson, Mrs. Kula Green, and Mr. James Lang. This wonderful Social came to an end with the showing of three short, comical movies. It was truly an evening of gaiety, a memorable occasion, and for the colored brethren, a foretaste of recapturing true values.
